ABOUT KARIN JAMIESON

Karin Jamieson Jewelry embraces natural beauty with its one-of-a-kind designs featuring delicate gemstones and precious metals in a stunning collection of earrings, bracelets, necklaces, and rings. Called a Rising Star by JCK, GIA Graduate Gemologist and jewelry designer Karin Jamieson takes inspiration from her travels around the globe and the canyons behind her home in Scottsdale. Each of her pieces is sculptural and one of a kind, utilizing precious stones like Aquaprase to channel the Mediterranean and Sunstones, representative of the desert sands and exclusively mined in the U.S. Karin Jamieson Jewelry has been worn by celebrities like Kelly Rowland, Heather Graham, Alexis Bledel, Awkwafina, Chloé Lukasiak, Marisa Tomei and others.

"IT LOOKS LIKE TURQUOISE, ONLY PRETTIER."

Only discovered in 2016, Aquaprase is a recent arrival to the colored gemstone jewelry world. The translucent stone features a blue-green color reminiscent of the Mediterranean Sea. Her favorite examples of the stone feature flecks of the rock formations where the gem is found, revealing its natural, untreated quality. "It's my new love", says Karin. "I love to pair it with rose gold."
